ABOUT ME

I'm a Brazilian Business Administrator, graduated from UNEB (Universidade do Estado da Bahia), in Bahia - Brazil. At this moment I'm going through a career transition. I consider my Administration formation as indispensable to any area. My focus is to be a Front-End Developer, and use my Administration skills to improve my work and my behavior inside the company, being much more capable of understanding the needs and paths of it.

This is a Portuguese School for Foreigners in Salvador, Brazil - one of the most touristic cities in Brazil. It was an amazing opportunity of practicing my english and having experience with talking and knowing new cultures. I talked to people from different countries of the world and helped them to choose the best course to fit in their needs. All consultations were by phone or in person (most of them in person).
